MIDDLESBROUGH TOWN HALL.

LL6376

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Middlesbrough Town Hall, with the adjoining municipal offices, form a very imposing pile of buildings. The style of architecture is Gothic, adapted to modern requirements. They were built from designs by G. Gordon Hoskins, F.R.I.B.A., and cost over £110,000. The opening ceremony was performed January 23rd, 1889, by the Prince of Wales.

(For Address Only.)

"MIDDLESBROUGH." Regd. | Postcard 7403.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

Printed in England.

C7/A2.7